Come Volunteer for Effingham County's Christmas Bird Count!

Saturday the 20th of December

What is a Christmas Bird Count? Watch this quick video:

🐦Come help your community and the Audubon Society record the birds calling Effingham County their winter retreat. Join one of the teams driving around the public parks and ponds of Guyton, Rincon, and Springfield to see how many different species we can spot.

🐦All ages and birdwatching skill levels welcome. It's a great family event to learn more about local wildlife.

🐦Scouts can earn badges and students can earn volunteer hours for participating.

Don't want to travel? You can also document birds at your feeder if you are within the county surveying circle. Scan this code and type in your address to see if you qualify:
